ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

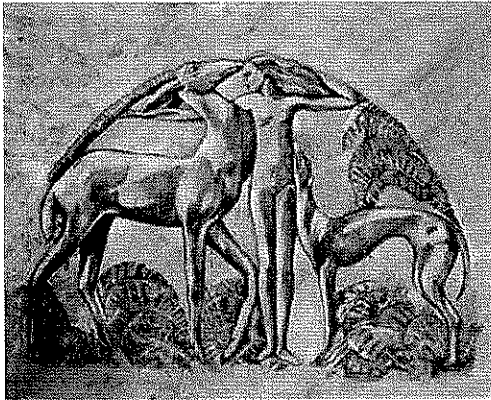

Kathy Archibald has once again graciously offered us the use of this beautiful field northeast of Tallahassee. Please take the time to thank her if you get the opportunity. For those of you new to joining us at this lovely site, the field is approximately 15 acres, generally flat and open yet still undulating, covered in dense grass. It is bounded on three sides by fences (two adjacent to roads) and on the fourth by a tree line, but it should not be considered absolutely dog proof. A barbed wire strand tops the heavily vegetated fences and runs through the tree line, but the courses will stay well away from this.

Running water and a portable toilet are available. No camping on site will be permitted. Parking will be on a sloping hillside immediately above the field. The owner asks that you protect the tree roots by not parking beneath the trees, but crates and tarps may be set beneath them. A second parking area occurs immediately inside of the farm entrance atop the hill. This area is appropriate for RVs and may be used by all if rains make parking closer to the field impossible.

We ask that everyone attending restrict themselves to the coursing field and parking areas. Plastic tape and signs will be posted to indicate closed areas (including the barn). The barn is being rebuilt so stay away from areas of construction debris. Dogs may be walked along the back side of the tree line or throughout the parking areas. Please be considerate and CLEAN UP AFTER YOUR HOUNDS and PICK UP YOUR CIGARETTE BUTTS. DO NOT PARK UNDERNEATH THE TREES. Thank you, and we hope you enjoy the event and weekend.

Robert Nix Trophy
Offered for
BEST IN EVENT
TO BE AWARDED SUNDAY, MARCH 7, 2010

The Robert Nix Perpetual Trophy is offered annually by ACC at its spring field trials in recognition of the contributions to the sport of lure coursing by photographer Robert Nix. The Robert Nix Trophy was donated to ACC by Les Pekarski. Pictured below is last year's winner, Draco, owned by Brandie Hudecek.

To be eligible to compete for the Nix Trophy, your hound must meet these requirements: Must compete on Saturday and Sunday; must receive a qualifying score each day in prelims and finals; must have won Best of Breed on at least Saturday or Sunday. Best in Event is run on Sunday after all breed run-offs.

The winner of the Nix Trophy is allowed to keep the trophy until the following year's spring ACC field trials.

HOUND CERTIFICATION AND PRACTICE RUNS

ACC will hold Hound Certifications Saturday morning before competition begins and after the trial, then Practice, weather, time, and equipment permitting. You must have a hound with similar running ability available to run with the hound attempting to be certified. ACC recommends that new hounds be practiced alone as well as with other hounds before attempting a certification run. Hound Certification cost $10.00. Practice cost $3.00.

Email Premium List Sign-up

In an effort to cut cost of postage, ACC will soon stop using the US Mail / printed premium lists.

Please provide your information below and include this page with your entry for this trial or give to a club officer during the trial. You may also email the information to ACC at yilviin2@earthlink.net at any time to change your email address.

LAS VEGAS LURE COURSING
50/50 SPLIT

WE ARE AGAIN OFFERING JIM ANTHONY'S LAS VEGAS LURE COURSING TO RAISE SOME MONEY FOR THE CLUB AND, AT THE SAME TIME, HELP ONE LUCKY PERSON OUT WITH – OH SAY – THE GAS MONEY FOR YOUR TRIP!!!!

HOW DOES IT WORK:

- You can enter any sight hound you own or have owned (dog does not need to be present at trial to enter).
- The entry fee is $2.00 per dog. Sign up is at roll call and up to 10:00 a.m. We have two Judges. Each Judge starts with a score for your dog of 70 points. You then pick one card per Judge at the time you sign up. Just like the trial, the first two cards are your scores for the prelims and are added to the 70 points.. Ace to ten are worth face value (1-10), Jacks – 11, Queens 12 and Kings 13, Jokers means your dog was excused. During the lunch break you will draw your second cards (one for each Judge) for the finals.
- Then all of the scores will be added together and our Breed Winners will be determined. These winners will then draw for Best in Field. The Best in Field winner will then win 50% of the proceeds.

Come join us – give this a try!!
